

WOMAN FIGHTS BELLEVUE NURSE, DIVES TO DEATH

Mrs. Richards Had Been Told
There Was Little Chance for Her Recovery.

Stealthily arising from her cot in Ward No. 12, Bellevue Hospital, a sad-faced woman, who had just been told there was no chance for her recovery, crept across the big room between the cots on which other ill and suffering women lay, and dived from the fire-escape overlooking Twenty-eighth street at 2:30 A. M. to-day.

A nurse saw the woman reach the escape, and rushed after her. She seized the woman and the two fought on the escape landing on the fourth floor. The sick woman seemed to have the strength of a maniac, and the nurse was hurled back as the woman dived from the escape to the flagging far below.

When Dr. Woolridge and several attendants in the hospital found the woman she was dead. She had been killed instantly.

The record book showed she was Mrs. Lena Richards, thirty-one years old and married, who lived at No. 102 Congress street, Jersey City.

Entering the hospital the woman gave as her best friend Mrs. Minnie Meyer, of No. 511 Huger street, West Hoboken.

Dr. Woolridge said the woman had applied to the hospital yesterday afternoon.

"I don't know what is the matter with me," she said, "but I am very sick. The doctors over in Jersey City said they could do nothing for me, and I have come here. I am desperate."

Dr. Woolridge examined the woman and told her that she was suffering from an abscess in the breast and incipient epilepsy.

"We may cure you, but I cannot say," the physician told the woman. "I will assign you to a cot in Ward No. 12."

He watched the woman during the early part of the night. She was nervous and unable to sleep, and seemed to have a horror of a lingering death.

"Is there any hope for me?" she asked the nurse along about midnight.

"You are very ill," the nurse told her. Mrs. Richards fought sleep after that. She watched her chance until the nurse's back was turned, and then made her dive to death.

Eight months ago Mrs. Richards' husband deserted her. Since then she had lived alone in the Jersey City apartment. Mrs. Carroll, the janitress, said to-day that Mrs. Richards often threatened to take her life.

ANOTHER MISHAP TO ZEPPELIN AIRSHIP

Wind Jams Balloon Against
Shed, Putting Off 24-Hour
Flight a Week.

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, July 15.—Another accident to Count Zeppelin's airship made impossible the twenty-four hour trip which was scheduled for to-day.

The damage caused yesterday to the mammoth airship by a defect to the steering gear had been fully repaired, and Count Zeppelin had decided to start on his twenty-four hour flight this morning. Following this programme, the balloon was brought out of its shed at 11 o'clock, the crew mounted to their platforms and everything was in readiness for a departure when the order to cast off was given.

Responding to the manoeuvre, the bow of the ship rose in the air and the motors were started. Then, before sufficient way had been acquired to permit of proper steering, a gust of wind blew the entire airship against the side of the floating shed.

The side steering gear of the ship hit the walls of the hall, and twenty yards of the outer rubber-covered silk covering was torn away, while the side propeller was bent.

The airship remained hanging in this position for ten minutes. Its bow in the air and its stern resting in the water. It was eventually freed from this position and towed back to the shed. An inspection of the damage was made, after which it was announced that it would take a week to effect repairs. Consequently the long flight will have to be postponed for at least seven days.

FLOATING HOSPITAL WORK.

Already 8,500 Infant Patients
Have Been Taken for Day's Outings.

Since the Floating Hospital of St. John's Guild began making its daily trips on July 6 more than 8,500 infant patients have been carried, nearly 3,000 more than during the same period last year.

Over 1,500 of the number carried were infants under two years of age. Four thousand baths were given in the spacious bathroom with which the hospital is equipped.

At the Guild's Seattle Hospital at New Dorn 1,000 patients have been admitted since the first of June, double the number for the same period last year.

Isaac N. Seidman, of No. 104 Park avenue, looks after contributions for the fund through which the work is carried on by the Guild.

A whole day?

Now, if you could find a soap that would enable you to get through by noon, instead of at five in the afternoon, you would use that soap, wouldn't you?

There is such a soap.

Its name is P. & G. Naphtha Soap.

It sells for 5 cents a cake. It would pay you to use it, if it cost you 25 cents—because of the time, labor and fuel it saves.
